Welcome Home

Sunday morning, praying with Your church

There for a taste of heaven on earth

Then a moment later, I'm not sure how

Jesus, I'm finally with You now

Welcome Home

And I heard your glorious voice

Come in, come in

You fought and finished the race

Come in to my embrace

Welcome Home

The angels asked me what it's like

To have the Living God inside

The Gospel, the Body, and the Blood

Jesus, we are finally One

Welcome Home

And I heard your glorious voice

Come in, come in

You fought and finished the race

Come in to my embrace

Welcome Home

The martyrs told me, you're one of us now

Join us in prayer, He taught us how

We pray for those who hurt our flesh

Jesus, You, my soul will bless

Welcome Home

Looking down we see grief

But here only joy and relief

The peace we feel within

Your Image is no longer dim

Welcome Home

Jesus forgive them, bless their lives

We can see You in them, but in disguise

Do not charge them, they did not know

Jesus, we are finally Home

Welcome Home

And I heard your glorious voice

Come in, come in

You fought and finished the race

Come in to my embrace

Welcome Home
